HOW PRICING WORKS

- Starting fees are estimates. Final pricing depends on forms, schedules, states, bookkeeping, research and complexity.
- Material added fees are discussed before added work is performed. Tax preparation fees are due before filing or release.
- Government filing fees, third-party charges and specialty costs are additional when applicable.

PAYMENT, CANCELLATION & REFUND POLICY

Consultations:	Paid at booking. Reschedule with at least 24 hours notice. Cancellations 24+ hours in advance may be eligible for refund; late cancellations and no-shows are non-refundable.
Tax / Professional Services:	Once work begins, fees are earned based on work performed. Completed preparation, research, planning and bookkeeping services are non-refundable.
Client Changes:	Missing or corrected documents, new information, or changes after work begins may result in additional fees.
Marian Enterprises Error:	If an amended return is required solely because of our preparation error, the correction is prepared without an additional tax-preparation fee.
Refund Processing:	Approved refunds are returned to the original payment method when practical; bank or processor timing may vary.
